Disclaimer

Effective date: [EFFECTIVE DATE]

This Disclaimer applies to alaska-i.com and related services (the “Services”) operated by [OPERATOR LEGAL NAME] (“we,” “us,” or “our”). It is part of our Terms of Service, which contain the full disclaimers of warranties and limitations of liability.

1. General information only

Information on the Services is provided in good faith for general information purposes. We try to keep it accurate and current, but we make no representation or warranty, express or implied, about its accuracy, completeness, timeliness, reliability or availability. You use the Services and rely on any information on them at your own risk.

2. Listings and other user content

Listings, résumés, reviews and other content posted by users are the responsibility of the users who post them. We do not verify, endorse or guarantee any listing, price, description, photo, property, vehicle, item, animal, job, service or user. Our moderation is designed to keep prohibited content off the Services; it is not an inspection, appraisal, background check or verification of identity, ownership, title, condition or legality. A verified phone number shows only that a user controlled that number when registering.

Before you pay money, sign a lease or contract, travel to see an item, or share personal information, verify the details independently. For example: inspect property and vehicles in person, check vehicle history and title and property records, confirm the identity of the person you are dealing with, and never pay deposits or fees to someone you have not verified.

3. Weather, flights, travel and outdoor information

Weather, flight arrival and departure times, travel, tourism and outdoor information on the Services comes from third-party sources, may be delayed, incomplete or wrong, and may not reflect rapidly changing conditions in Alaska.

Do not rely on the Services for safety decisions, flight planning, navigation, marine, backcountry, road or aviation use. Always check official sources, such as the National Weather Service, the Federal Aviation Administration, your airline or carrier, the Alaska Department of Transportation and Public Facilities, and the land managers and operators responsible for the places you visit. Descriptions of tourist attractions, trails, opening seasons and entry fees may be out of date; confirm them with the operator before you go.

4. Exchange rates, prices and news

Currency exchange rates are indicative, may be delayed and are not offers to buy or sell currency; do not use them for trading or financial decisions. Prices shown in listings are set by the users who post them. News headlines and event listings are supplied by third-party publishers and venues, remain their property, and link to their original sources; we do not edit them and are not responsible for their content.

5. No professional advice

Nothing on the Services is legal, financial, tax, investment, real estate, immigration, employment, medical, veterinary or other professional advice. Consult a qualified professional licensed in your jurisdiction before acting on any information.

6. Promoted listings and advertising

Some listings appear higher in results, or are marked with labels such as “VIP” or “Featured,” because the user who posted them paid for a promotion plan. Their position reflects that payment, not our recommendation or endorsement. If we display advertising or receive compensation for links, we will identify it as such.

Drafting note: At the time of drafting only job listings display a “VIP”/“Featured” badge; paid placement in other categories is not labeled. Counsel to advise whether every category should label paid placement (FTC guidance on search and placement advertising).

7. External links

The Services contain links to third-party websites and services, including sellers' own websites, news sources, map providers, Telegram and Stripe. We do not control, investigate or monitor those websites, and we are not responsible for their content, accuracy, privacy practices or availability. A link does not mean we endorse the site. We are not a party to any transaction between you and a third party.

8. Map data

Maps display data © OpenStreetMap contributors, available under the Open Database License. Map data is created by volunteers and may be inaccurate or incomplete; locations shown on listings are placed by the users who post them and may be approximate.

9. Limitation of liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, we are not liable for any loss or damage of any kind incurred as a result of using the Services or relying on any information provided on them, as further set out in the “Disclaimers” and “Limitation of liability” sections of our Terms of Service. Some jurisdictions do not allow certain exclusions or limitations, so some of them may not apply to you.
